CONSTRUCTION TO BEGIN ON £8 MILLION SPORTS CENTRE IN PARIS

Construction is due to start on the Centre sportif Pajol in Paris. Brisac Gonzalez obtained full building permit on 24 June 2009. The £ 8,000,000 building comprises 4 047 m² of sports and educational facilities in the centre of Paris, including a regional sports hall, a martial arts centre, a fitness centre and an education centre. The building is a pilot scheme to establish a new environmental benchmark for sports facilities in France. Construction is due to start in February 2010, for completion end 2011.
